A judgment balance of $2,339,284.13 remains outstanding as of August 19, 2022.

In addition, you are hereby notified that there are exemptions under the law, which may apply if you, the Judgment debtor, can demonstrate to the Court that they apply. The attached Notice to Judgment Debtor Regarding Exemptions and Exemption Claim Form summarize the major exemptions.

You have a right to ask the Court to return your property to you if you think you do not owe the money, or that an exemption applies.

If you want a hearing, you must file your objection[s] within twenty (20) days of receipt of the Writ or within twenty (20) days of receipt of the answer of the garnishee. You must file your objection[s] with the Clerk of Court for the United States District Court for the District of Utah at 351 South West Temple, Rm. 1.100, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84101 and reference Civil Action No. 2:19-CV-00713-DAK-DAO. You should explain to the judge why you believe that the taken property is exempt or why you think you do not owe a debt to the Federal Trade Commission and the Utah Division of Consumer Protection; however, please note that the issues to be decided in this action will be limited: (1) To the validity of any claim for exemption; (2) to compliance with any statutory requirements for the issuance of the Writ; and (3) Only if the judgment is by default and only to the extent that the Constitution or any other law of the United States provides a right to review, to: (a) The probable validity of the claim for the judgment debt; and (b) the existence of good cause for setting aside such judgment. The burden is on you to prove the grounds in support of your objection[s] and right to a hearing.

If you live outside the federal judicial district from which the Writ issued, you may request, not later than twenty (20) days after you receive this notice, that this proceeding be transferred by the Court to the federal judicial district in which you reside. REGARDING EXEMPTIONS

Case No. 2:19-cv-00713-DAK-DAO

District Judge Dale A. Kimball
Magistrate Judge Daphne A. Oberg

The attached post-judgment process has been issued at the request of the Federal Trade Commission and the Utah Division of Consumer Protection.

The law provides that certain property is exempt and cannot be taken. This Notice lists the applicable exemptions. There is no exemption solely because you are having difficulty paying your debts.

If you claim an exemption, you should (1) fill out the Request for Hearing Form and the Exemption Claim Form and (2) deliver the form to the United States District Court for the District of Utah, 351 South West Temple, Rm. 1.100, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84101. You must also send a copy of your request to Joshua Doan, Roberto Anguizola, and Lauren Rivard, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Mailstop CC-6316, Washington, DC 20580, and Robert Wing, Thomas Melton, and Kevin McLean, Utah Attorney General's Office, 160 East 300 South, Fifth Floor, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84114. If you request a hearing, you should come to court ready to explain why your property is exempt, and you should bring any documents which may help you prove your case. If you do not come to court at the designated time and prove that your property is exempt, you may lose some of your rights. It may be helpful to you to seek the advice of an attorney in this matter.
