The attached Writ or Disposition Order was obtained by the Federal Trade Commission and the Utah Division of Consumer Protection, pursuant to the Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act, 28 U.S.C. § 3205. If you fail to answer the Writ or fail to withhold property in accordance with the Writ, the Federal Trade Commission and the Utah Division of Consumer Protection may petition the Court for an Order requiring you to appear before the Court to answer the Writ and to so withhold property before the appearance date. The procedures established under 31 C.F.R. Part 212 for identifying and protecting federal benefits deposited to accounts at financial institutions DO NOT apply to this garnishment order. The garnishee should comply with the terms of this writ and the disposition order, including instructions for withholding, retaining or turning over any funds deposited to any account(s), pending further order of the court.

If you fail to appear, or you appear and fail to show good cause why you failed to comply with the Writ, the court will enter judgment against you for the value of the Judgment debtor's nonexempt interest in such property (including nonexempt disposable earnings).

The Court may also award a reasonable attorney's fee to the Federal Trade Commission and the Utah Division of Consumer Protection and against you if the writ is not answered within the time specified herein and if the Federal Trade Commission and the Utah Division of Consumer Protection file a petition requiring you to appear.
